Product Description

The Kado model from Viefe is a simple, subtle handle that adapts easily to any style of furniture. Its linear form and bridge type structure lend it a touch of lightness and comfort. Its slightly inclined sides lend it a touch of robustness and allow it to be fitted to furniture elegantly. Designed especially for contemporary kitchens in wood or with a black or white tone. Manufactured in zamak, it comes in two sizes of 160 and 320mm. Both come in a shiny chrome, stainless steel inox or aluminium look finish.

Kado is a part of the Zamak line. Model 0162.
