Product Description

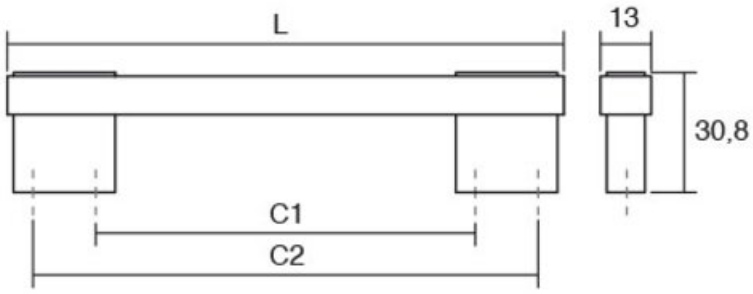

The are many factors that intervene in creating a sense of warmth in a kitchen or bath. The colours, the contours of the furniture and especially, the materials chosen. The Rec handle helps in creating this sense of warmth. It is manufactured in a combination of Zamak (base) and acrylic (body) which makes it very pleasant to the touch. It’s straight, minimalist contours help it to blend into all types of spaces with a natural ease. It’s ideal for kitchens in ochre tones or with a wooden, rustic style. It is available in knob format and also in handle format in two sizes, 128mm and 192mm. There are many different combinations possible to be made by playing about with the base and the body. Bases come in shiny chrome, brushed nickel, a black or white finish for the body or translucent black or brown.

Rec belongs to the zamak + acrylic line. Mod. 0320
Designed by Alexis Vivet.
