Product Description

The wall hook Bol protrudes using a subtle stalk made in zamak which is fixed to the wall, and the rest of the hanger “flowers” from the stalk like a wooden bowl in natural beech, white enamel and natural sapelli. The smooth shapes that make this wall hook ensure its comfort and functionality to hold all sorts of clothing and accessories. The industrial style of Bol is perfect for creating surroundings that transmit personality using organic materials and an elegant lineal design. Designed by Balutto Associati, the Bol collection of knobs and wall hooks transmits a new decorative concept based on warmth and harmony.
