Product Description

Made in zamak, the wall hook Como forms part of the successful family of knobs and handles of the same name designed by the Viefe® Team. Going beyond the world of furniture, Como can also be found on the walls of hallways, bedrooms, kitchens, bathrooms and offices. With its classic, sophisticated design, the emblematic circumference of Como can be installed onto walls and fulfill all the requirements of a practical, functional wall hook. The elegance of its linear design allows for an infinite number of combinations with different colours. It creates unique surroundings and adds personality to your walls via the seven different finishes which, when combined between them, form optical constellations which are extremely attractive.
